CORAM:A.P.SHAH J.
26th OCTOBER, 2005

P.C.

. Heard the learned Counsel appearing for the parties. Perused the order passed by the Revisional Authority.

2. Each of the contentions raised by the petitioner has been dealt with by the revisional authority and the revision petition has been dismissed. The only point raised by the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner before me is that certain amount has been paid by the petitioner towards interest free loan, however, the society has not given credit for the said amount. According to the Society the payments made by the petitioner have nothing to do with the amount adjudicated under the certificate. In any event, the revisional authority has clarified in its order that if the amount paid by the petitioner is deposited in the society's bank account directly it is the duty of the society to give credit to this amount and issue receipt to the petitioner. In my opinion, no case is made out for infereference with the order of the revisional authority. Petitions are dismissed.
